PRODUCER SHOWCASE

Great wines, with a great story from a great producer.

Domaine Romaneaux-Destezet (Northern Rhône, France)

This Domaine is a relative newcomer which has rapidly become a darling among the hipster set for its pepper and violet infused unoaked Syrah. They also produce Gamay as Hervé studied in Burgundy and learnt from the masters, Marcel Lapierre and Philippe Pachelet. These are wines on the edge, both technically in terms of winemaking as well as idiosyncratically in style.

Syrah, Hervé Souhaut 2016 (Vin de France) – 105

Gamay 'La Soutronne', Hervé Souhaut 2016 (Vin de France) MAGNUM – 235

Viognier / Roussanne "Romaneaux-Destezet", Harvé Souhaut 2016 (Vin de France) – 105

WHITE WINES WITH ZEN-LIKE PRECISION

These flinty, fresh and clean wines possess a salty lick from the sea and or a smoky kick from the soil. They are the thirst quenchers, the nerve-tinglingly tangy, the refreshing, the bum clenchingly dry & the wines with a superb perky nose & a taut cleansing finish.
